French Riviera – Cote d’Azur

Four star campsite – Esterel Caravaning
www.esterel-caravaning.fr

Spend your holiday on a four star campsite set in breathtaking scenery in the Esterel hills. This is an ideal spot for nature lovers with its superb walks, from a gentle stroll to a hike in the mountains. Relax by the pool or enjoy a drink on the bar terrace overlooking the swimming complex. The village of Agay is a couple of miles away with its sandy beach and paved cafes.

Esterel Caravaning offers a variety of services of the highest quality to enjoy a wonderful holiday in the south of France: A swimming complex consisting of 2 large and 3 smaller pools and jungle paradise a new indoor pool for the younger children. There are non stop activities for all the family to enjoy in a quiet and secure environment.

Itinerary (Example only)

Direct Travel 14 days

Day 1: Sunday – Depart our local area mid morning for our journey to Dover, with a short ferry crossing to Calais. We then travel through the night to our destination Agay on the beautiful Cote d’Azur, making comfort stops en-route.

Day 2: Monday – We arrive at the beautiful Esterel 4 star site mid morning to be greeted by our site managers Dave & Joyce, who will escort you to your mobile home. A member of Redfern’s staff will deliver your luggage to your mobile home.

Day 3: Tuesday – At approximately 10.30am the coach leaves the site taking you to St Raphael for both beach and shops. At 3.00pm the coach departs for our first visit to the hypermarket for the weekly groceries.

A member of Redfern’s staff will deliver all groceries to your mobile home.

Day 4: Wednesday – A full day on site to relax and enjoy all the amenities it has to offer.

Day 5: Thursday – At 3.30pm depart the site for a tour of the pine scented resort of Antibes. This old town has a charming collection of small narrow streets that has kept its original charm.

Day 6: Friday – An optional excursion to Ventimiglia in Italy. This resort offers a bustling weekly street market and is famous for its cheap alcohol and tobacco, returning via Menton. Alternatively spend the whole day in Menton where the town’s French traditions blend seamlessly with Italian culture, not surprising considering it is right on the border with Italy.

Day 7: Saturday – At 10.00am the coach departs for our last visit to the hypermarket, all groceries will be delivered as before. At 5.30pm we depart for an evening in the resort of St Raphael, this local resort offers a craft market along the promenade.

Day 8: Sunday – Depart at 9.30am-12.30pm for a morning at Le Muy market where you can purchase the finest fresh produce.

On site facilities included:

- Self service supermarket

Day 9: Monday – A full day excursion to St. Maxime, which lies on the northern shore of the gulf of St. Tropez. You have the option of a boat cruise to St. Tropez for a small charge, your driver will advise on prices.

Day 10: Tuesday – A full day tour to Eze, where you may purchase goods from the perfume factory. Continuing onto Monaco so prepare yourself for some breathtaking scenery. Monaco owes much of its popularity to the late Prince Rainier and Princess Grace. For those who wish to visit Monte Carlo it is a walk away or you may wish to catch the “Noddy Train” and sit back and view the sights. Monte Carlo is famous for its casino and its riches.

Day 11: Wednesday – A full day excursion to the picturesque city of Cannes, most famous for the film festival. This fashionable resort offers sailing, swimming, shopping, lovely parks and a castle.

Day 12: Thursday – A day on site for everyone to relax and enjoy all the amenities it has to offer and prepare for the journey home.

Day 13: Friday – We say our sad farewells to all at Esterel at approximately mid morning, retracing our steps for our journey homewards. We travel through the night arriving at Calais for our early morning sailing to Dover. Making comfort stops en-route.

Day 14: Saturday – We arrive back to our local area approximately midday.

Excursions may vary due to local conditions or subject to alteration.
